Voluntary retirement benefits to employees of ITI, Rai Bareli

3244. SHRI DARA SINGH CHAUHAN: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) whethet it is a fact that services rendered under other Government of India Public Sector Undertakings need to be reckoned with while calculating Voluntary Retirement compensation in respect of employees of Indian Telephone Industries Limited, who took voluntary retirement as per scheme notified by DPE's OM dated 5th May, 2000;

(b) if so, whether some employees of I.T.I. Rai Bareli were deprived of this benefit while calculating their Voluntary Retirement ex-gratia; and

(c) if so, what corrective measures Government propose to take to do justice with such erstwhile employees of the Rai Bareli Unit?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (DR. SHAKEEL AHMAD): (a) Department of Public Enterprises O.M. dated 5th May, 2000 does not mention reckoning of previous services rendered under other Government of India Public Sector Undertaking while calculating Voluntary Retirement compensation. However, DPE O.M. No. 2(32)/97-DPE(WC) dated 28th February, 2002 provides for the following:—

> "If the service with each PSU is continuous (without break) and PF and Earned Leave have been transferred from one PSU to other PSU, then past service may be counted in case the employees avails himself of VRSA/SS as per the scheme notified by DPE's O.M. dated 5th May, 2000/

(b) No employee or Rai Baraeli unit of ITI Limited, who fulfilled the eligibility criteria as per DPE guidelines as above, has been denied the benefits of past service rendered in other Government of India Public Sector Undertakings, while calculating VR ex-gratia.

(c) Does not arise in view of (b) above.
